

CRACCUM The Journal of the A.U.C. Students' Association

Vol. 25-No. 5

Friday, April 27, 1951

LABOR CLUB IS F MOSCOW -- HALST BA "NOT TOOLS"--- N.Z's Foreign Policy SHADROLT

National Party big boss, Eric Halstead, M.P., says: "Socialists in the Auckland University Labor Club ... are consciously or unconsciously playing Moscow's game.'

He was commenting on the disaffiliation of the Labor Club from the Labor Party, decided on at a meeting of the Club last Thursday. The decision was made with a two-thirds majority.

Said he: "We in the Labor Club are not inter-ested in Halstead's fatuous comments. We are not interested in Moscow's ancient 'red "This bogey' is now beginning to smell."

The Club had been af. filiated to the Labor Party since its inception.

Speaking at Thursday's meeting Brian Fox said that the Labor Party did clear not now possess a clear policy that could be fol-

'The party has lost contact with the majority of workers," he said. "It has ceased to represent Leftwing opinion."

Jim Gale pointed out that the club had not lost its leftist foundation. It was the Labor Party that had done so. "'The Club," he con-tinued, "could still work with the Labor Party on specific issues such as the restoration of subsidies." Some members com-mented that continued af-filiation to a party which members fillation to a party which only a section of workers now supported, would limit the field of the club. A true Socialist club should have a wide variety of Left-wing opinion.

Thus, the club could fulfil a more progressive role in the University.

Opponents of the motion said the Labour Party was the only hope for the New Zealand working people.

Other organizations could not as yet provide any effective opposition to current home and foreign policy

Labor Club president Maurice Shadbolt em-phatically repudiates this statement. Tim O'Shea and Mrs. Bradbury reminded mem-bers that they would not be able to send delegates to the Party conferences in the event of disaffiliation.

In addition to Mr. Halstead's comments Craccum obtained other comment from political leaders in the community. Said radical chief John A. Lee: "If the Labor Club likes to disaffiliate from the party that's its own business. Big time labor mogul

Martin Finlay had no comment to make when approached. M.P. Warren Freer

M.P. Warren F Labor tycoon added, Labor tycoon added, ... the decision to disaffiliate seems belated ... the whole thing appears to depend on a personal approach to the Labor Party" Party.

Labor club president Shadbolt, after taking Halstead to task for his con-troversial statement said, "The Labor Club has a mind of its own. Socialists in the Labor Club are in-terested in New Zealand rather than in Moscow. We are disgusted with the role played by the Labor Party.

The decision wia s prompted by the Party's "sit-on-the-fence" attitude to the question of Peace, the lowering of living standards and the pres-ent restriction on civil liberties."

Two other resolutions were passed unanimously at the meeting. The first provided for the sending of delegates to the New Zealand Peace Congress. In the second the club decided to support dele-gates to the Berlin Peace 'estival.

ALBERT PARK The question of lighting up Albert Park was raised recently. It might not be a bad idea. And in any case, most students are either broadminded or nearsighted.

The Staff

Editors:

Sub-Editor: Joan Reilley.

Sports Editor: M. Kostanich. World Affairs:

M. Martinac. Exchange: O. Reilley.

Feminine News: Rae Catt.

Rae Cat. Reporters: J. Gale, M. Shadbolt, A. McNeil, C. Freeman, L. Sorrell, June Horsfall, Gwenyth Jones, Dixon Reilley, Jeff Fuller, Unton.

"New Zealand in her foreign policy should maintain a more critical attitude, with a view to moderating U.S. hysteria and lessening the danger of war."

This was said by D. Heron at a meeting of the International Relations Club on Monday April 9.

to decide whether or not students support Mr Holland's statement that New Zealand will "stick by the U.S. through thick and thin, right or wrong."

The other principal speaker was R. Chapman, principal and the meeting was chaired by Professor Airey.

Heron stated that he could not agree with the Prime-Minister's dictum.

"It's foolish," he said, "for anyone to assume that our interests are identical with those of the U.S."

He said that a formal alliance with America was not necessary, because in the event of attack American aid would be forth-coming in any case. If it was not in the interests of the U.S. to provide such aid, no pact could force her to do so.

"New Zealand should not sell her birthright for a guarantee of U.S. protection. Independence of judgment should be mainof tained. Especially on such vital points as

• use of the atom bomb

- recognition of Com-
- munist China

• re-armament of Japan and Germany, continued Mr Heron.

He made it clear that a Pacific Pact such as Mr Dulles was proposing would increase the danger of war-not lessen it.

Chapman pointed out in his address that the U.S. nis address that the U.S. policy which we are ap-parently committed to fol-low is the product of a number of conflicting forces. He referred to the different policies advocat-ed by influential "Time"

The discussion was held magazine, confused Sena-decide whether or not tor Taft, Truman and the American people.

Said Chapman, "How are we failing in our for-eign pollcy?

- We should have acted as Attlee did, to pre-vent the use of the atom bomb in Korea.
- We should have supported the Arab-Asian cease-fire proposals.
- We should point out the contradiction in the State Department's policy of using UNO as a body to organise the West against the East, for UNO was set up to preserve world peace."

He emphasised the fact that by joining the critics of U.S. policy, we should encourage freer discussion in the United States.

In conclusion Chapman said: "We are engaged in resurrecting a world situ-ation which we fought two world wars to destroy. The major objective of the world today is to live at peace.'

Coolies To Make Bridge

A plan by an Auck-lander who set in motion a scheme recently to im-port 443,000 colles from Indonesia, China and Burma to build our bridge is believed to be unaccept-able to the Harbour Bridge Authority.

Idea is to build the bridge in one month.

Colles will be quartered on Rangitoto and operate their own fory service to the site.

Pay will be 1/- a week for each coolig.

Queen St.)

CRACCUM

Friday. April 27, 195

EXECS. ARE HAPPY WITH THIS YEAR'S REVUE

Executive members of the Carnival Committee, John Buckland and Alan Gordon, both agree that the 1951 Revue will reestablish public and student confidence in this event.

The show is written and produced by Dick Dennant and closely follows the theme of this year's Carnival plank.

Dealing with Auckland's progress from Kupe to the present day the script is far from the oft-repeated wharfie v. government gags of previous years.

Page 2

sparkling,

Gibbins.

manner. The play is studded with music and songs composed

by music student and band-leader Bob

Song lyrics remind one of the great Charie Zan-bucka whose shows dur-ing and after World War II kept Auckland aud-iences Revue conscious year after year.

Front of House arrangements are in the capable

Many well - known in evening dress showing facets are treated in a her seats. hilarious

Back-room boy Gordon Upton, is the King-pin be-hind scenes and wants corduroy types to help him with make-up and scene-shifting. He could use a prompt too (no previous experience neces sary — nothing to do) ?

Now students, its up to you—some people have worked since last year to put Carnival back on its feet-your help is needed. Talk about Revue—get. your tickets (see notice elsewhere)—get your fam-ily and friends to come-Recommend Revue confidently.

wants to see personable young ladies and gents willing to wander round ber, Auckland. Remember the , dates May 7—11, Concert Cham-

DRAMA DOUSED

Drama Society endured its first instruction in dramatic production last Thursday evening amidst much hilarity and the presence of Professor Musgrove.

Oviously from the harsh though humorous manner in which the play was criticised this was the first (O yes) the very first instruction in this field that the Dramatic Club has had.

Victim piece of this slathering was a reading (I think that is the word) the third act of Othello.

To quote Professor Musgrove:

"Drama is essentially action."

In this light the presentation was a mere read-ing, lacking almost any movement. constructed grouping or clear action. The part of Othello him-self was excellently mutilated by club president Dick Dennant who re-duced the straight for-ward tragic part to third rate ham comedy, draw-ing crocodile tears and loud boos from the aud-ience. The falseness and petty veneer that this so-called actor possesses is both outrageous and puerile.

lago played by Doug. Drury with a subtleness and blatant dishonesty that was not in keeping with Prof. M's idea of the character. Argin to cupto character. Again to quote the Professor: "Iago is an 'onest 'umble man."

Neil Smith in reading Cassio, after being mono-tonously victimised by critic Sydney, in re-read-ing the part for the seventh time, reached the line "I am very ill at ease" and collapsed weep-ing on the floor ease and collapsed weep-ing on the floor. In future students will produce their own plays H. A. S. Miller. P.S. to Ed.: This may be re-hashed if you wish but please don't get away from the original too much and (Abridged) Auckland's new professional company of the Community Arts Service Theatre de-lighted drama fans with their recent pro-Shaw's Pygmalion.

Compared with many Compared with many amateur productions the action was fast. Scene changes were quick and intervals refreshingly short. This was partly be-cause of the utility scen-ery that was used. The C.A.S.T. are limited by the fact that their scenery fact that their scenery must be adaptible to vary ing stages and easily transported. Therefore the scenery was very simple and certainly not comparable to that used in the Auckland Training College production of Pygmalion a lew years.

The cast was good and Peggy Walker's portrayal of Eliza reached a high standard of attainment. After the third act she was easily the most im-

THANKS

The Easter Tournament

is over and done and I want to thank all those people who helped with the organisation. That the tournament wassome success is due to the work the members of the Tournament Commit-tee put into the "show" and to them are due the congratulations for the success of the Tourna-ment. It was a pleasure working with them and I wish to thank them pub-

They had big jobs to do due to the lack of general assistance from the students and special thanks go to the Billeting Committee headed by Committee headed by "Flash" Gordon, for the magnificent job they did in billeting 200 Southern students in private houses.

This, only as a result of much work and many late

To all the controllers much credit is due and once more I say well done and thank you. H. A. S. Miller.

for their efficient unselfish service.

Dear Sir.

licly

and nights.

More Moans and Groans ...

PYGM pressive character. She had both dignity and grace in the final scenes.

The difficult part of Professor Higgins was taken by Don Brown. He was best in the more boisterous scenes and not so good when restrained acting was required. Minor characters were well played. An interest-ing change was provided by the appearance of Al-fred Doolittle. Instead of being a very portly mem-ber of "the undeserving poor" he was small and wizened—like a bedraggled sparrow. During the third act he had to wage an unequal struggle th the noisest of Queen Street trams.

As a result many of his best lines yere inaudible at the back of the hall.

It is good to see tha Eliza's "Not b-y likely! that line is still good for a loud laugh. It must have loud laugh. It must have caused a minor explosion when first rendered. This very enjoyable play was produced by Harold Baigent.

don't alter the facts sup-plied or add to them.

[We wouldn't dare. Eds.]

PRUDES

"A girl fresher tells us about the men in her life about the men in her life ..." a particularly apt heading for an astound-ingly aqueous effort. It was painfully obvious that the writer was a girl, and one, at that, of no advanced state of age or in-female element at the College, this letter is to point out that men are here for out that then are nere for a reason far beyond that of catering for the tastes of a small group of very young ladies whose minds are obviously not on their Abandon your ideas of the glamorous 'Varsity type, girls. Admit that since the male is here to educate himself so that in later years he may have a living and support a wife (perhaps even "Fresher")

(perhaps even "Fresher") he should be allowed to do erous shortcomings of

No attack on the num-

Sir !

telligence.

work.

fill them, use. Look First they the war (th ed now a d because of Russi niling a per any goo fre being t he blood lu eprisals. bey knew in for-

day April

Vorla

I few stu

's Comme

with th or' scho

ay-story-te

or._ And ev've got s

Weeks ago

bergs trial

ms and pat mists said

ing - trea

A little 1

ers ran th

ATOM S

SENTEN

TO DEA

lot of hot

s the day

groups

our corner

What's the wing the I

igh the cor

Na ished.

what set ping more announce an had our the bo due said se shame s.

T

The Sta Dowi

This film about ago INS. bably f m-town r e Cracci ut it is 1 resting to ne moment film in 1 bave bee a slow pre ration.

Ne have n us such asinine aj edy. Sex

II infantile we have a incapabl ng a good see one.

so in the manner he chooses. IRS

"Girls are Good" --says Reader

"All women students are virtuous — it is more intelligent to e so. Although many pretend to be worldly and experienced, when expressing themselves in Revue and in procession, this is really a kind of bravado act. Wicked women keep quiet about it."

know who you are, you tinker you] in protest against recent criticism levelled at Varsity women.

Neither has the public any right to expect women students to dress well. What has dress got to do with learning. During the term students are not liv-ing normal lives: they attend the University to learn not live, or love, as our Grandmothers did in their late teens.

The perfect woman is goody-good but just a not little bit naughty-just enough to be exciting.

When a woman is val-ued for her whole personality it is evident that University women as a group are definitely sup-erior, she continues.

For one thing their average intelligence

So writes M.E.T. [we | higher than their contemporaries outside. It is possible for a ragged shabby student to be charming, delightful and beautiful. structure.

Bone structure, eye shadow, and uplifts don't make a woman beautiful. What does is sparkling eyes, inner happiness and the quick flush of colour to the face when she is aware of herself as a woman.

When is that-naughty. naughty] Beauty is a mind-body

On complex. the one hand it depends on virtues nand it depends on virtues such as kindness, gentle-ness, purity and loftiness of ideals, on the other hand it depends on a body which is in good tone, with the hormones nicely balanced.

This correspondence is now closed.-Eds.]

ndey April 27, 1951

CRACCUM

Page 3 man

Vorld Queries - OUR GALLOP POLL GIVES US Students Flap

tew students try to talk sense in the n's Common Room these days. They com-te with the pontoon, and "crown and or" schools, the pianos patchy jive, the ty-story-tellers and the occasional ill-bred nin chile" who drags his chair across the n. And they talk pretty well because y've got something to talk about.

and grace part of ergs trial made hot gins was rown. He 8. Patriotic politis and patriotic colmore bois nd not so ists said only one 'ained act. - treason.

use.

any eprisals.

ATOM SPIES

SENTENCED

TO DEATH

lot of hot air floated

ugh the common room is the day that was lished. Nasty noisy groups huddled in, our corners and said:

. use

What's the b . . . use bying the Rosenbergs.

kill them, aw! what's

First they spied dur-the war (they're being ed now and socked because everyone's r of Russia). Second-

Illing a person does no

re being used to sat-

a blood lust. Fourth-heir death could lead

bey knew what they in for-don't talk

what set the tongues

Look at it like everyone's good. Thirdly

ters were interest-1 provided ace of Alinstead of rtly mem-Ideserving mall and bedrag During the i to wage ggle th f Queen

Queen

27, 195

cter. She es.

any of his inaudible he hall. see that likely!' od for a nust have explosion red yable play y Harold

. lacts supthem.

ES

are. Eds.]

r tells us a her life larly apt astoundfort y obvious as a girl of no aduge or in-the numgs of the t the Cols to point here for 'ond that he tastes) of very se minds on their ideas of 'Varsity nit that s here to that in lay have 'resher" ved to do aner he

Weeks ago the Ros- | One chap thought it was worth shouting his comments. "A little while ago I heard someone say that America could be com-pared with an aggressive drunk. Russia might have drunk as much but at the moment it looks as if she can hold her liquor better. He might have been right then. However the dis-missal of MacArthur missal of MacArthur shows that America may ly Truman doesn't repreworld though he seems to think he does.'

Rosenbergs had changed the course of world his-ing more loosely was announcement that man had given Mac-hor the boot. It was nue said some. Shock-If China was, or is, at taked that would prob-tacked that would prob-ably bring Russia in. Then the fun would start.

THE FILMS

Films. this film first came about fourteen ars ago and will bably finish its Down". m-town run by the Craccum is is-it is nevertheless esting to note that, he moment, this is the film in town. or the past few years have been subjected slow process of de-ration. have had thrust us such a collection melodramatic edy. sex melodramas nas. infantile shockers. we have become alincapable of recogg a good film when see one.

A little later the ers ran the verdict > have sobered up a bit. Another shouted back: "That may be right but Truman has acted in a too high handed fashion. Mac-Arthur was a United Nations Commander, yet Truman sacked him. Suresent all the nations in the > "Bunkum, just plain bunkum. Did you read that Judge Kaufman in the Rosenberg case said that he thought that the tory. That too is bunkum, just plain bunkum.

> If MacArthur had not been sacked that would have changed history. If he had got his way he would have shot into China.

The Stors Look When it does happen that a good film creeps in, it usually runs for a week. if they are to contribute anything to culture must travel the road of "The Stars Look

"If You Feel Like Singing" On the whole, this film is pleasant enough, but rather due to the personalities of the cast than to what they do.

The songs are uninspir-ing and Kelly's dancing sequences are flat comasinine apologies for pared to those of "On the Town.'

It is about time, also, that we saw a musicale. which did not contain the kind of nauseous romantic complication that is present in this film.

THE GEN. FROM SUBURBIA

UR Gallop Poll has been at it again. Despite the criticism of Oangry students, enraged because they have been kicked out from their beds of apathy, he's been finding out what "the people on the outside" think about the A.U.C. and the students in it. Craccum's recent story about the "prigs" at A.U.C. came from the opinions of a very small section of the community-business and professional men and women.

Now we have drawn comments from a wider field-from the housewife, from the wharfie, from shopgirls, stay-at-homes, coalheavers and clerks who make up the inter-alia plebia of Suburbia.

Begrimed by the paspalum and dust of unkempt streets our doughty reporter stuck to his assignment to the end, until he had run through the whole gamut of suburban opinion.

From door to door he pestered and posed. And here is the result.

WORKING on the principle that it's better to proceed from the known to the unknown, he made the first question simple and concrete.

• Where is the A.U.C.? 90 per cent. said they did not know, and ask

Is Hanging Right?

In New Zealand a murderer can now be hanged. Such a punishment is met with wide approval by many people. Recent-ly, in the leading articles of two large Auckland newspapers, we read of the public clamouring for their pound of flesh. What they don't realise is that society is falling down on its job when it resorts to hanging in the hope of stopping further murders. It is just another instance of dealing in effects and not in causes. Now days we prefer to stretch a murderer's neck rather than find out what makes him kill. A criminal is mainly a product of his environ-ment. For instance, it has been estimated that 90% of Sydney's criminals come from the naughty-naughty Surry Hills slum

The same could apply to the Freeman's Bay and Nelson Street districts in Auckland.

Let one of their products murder—we hang him. But the responsibil-ity rests ont only on the jury, judge and hangman (maybe it should be hangwoman) but on everyone, as we | are condoning a social murder.

Don't be like the woman who said "O, my dear, there's been a murder, they'll have to hang someone.

Face the facts, hanging is not a deterrent to murder.

M. Shadbolt, fairs.

ed if this question had anything to do with the Korean quiz run by the Listener.

9 per cent. said they had seen the tower and it was an experience they would never forget. per cent. said it was situated on a point equidistant from the Wynyard Arms and the Grand and the Station Hotels.

Question 2 related to the moral aspect of A.U.C. life.

• Did you see last year's capping book (the one that was banned)? 93 per cent. said they had seen it and were disgusted by the de-

FRANCES IS NEW PRESIDENT

Miss Frances Spence was elected President of the Students' Association at the last meeting of the executive.

Other candidates were P. Butcher and G. Horne. Voting was by ballot. Miss Spence received overwhelming support.

The vacancy was caus-ed by the departure for Australia of Michael Brit-Australia of Michael Brit-tain. Michael had been President of the Associa-tion since March of last year. He had also been prominent in a variety of Varsity clubs.

'Varsity clubs. Frances has been a member of the executive since 1948 and has been prominent in most sport-ing activities. As an executive member she has had charge of the Cafe had charge of the teria, Congress, Bookstall Student exchange, Re-cords, Scrapbook and Student Relief in addition to taking a lively interest in most Association afpravity of modern youth.

5 per cent. said they seen it.

2 per cent. said they were sorry they hadn't. Question 3 quipped the aesthetes.

Have you seen Varsity students similar to the ones described in Craccum?

The women said they had seen men like that but thought they were off boats in the harbour. The men said they never noticed vomen who looked like that. The next question had grave political significance.

• Is the University a breeding ground for Communists?

99 per cent. answered "Yes."

1 per cent. said that a political science stud-ent Stitzen Stinzki, had told her that Marx had been buried under one of the geography huts, When interviewed, Mr Stinzki said: "Yes, that is true.

THE final question was on that may have con-siderable effect on the A.U.C. of the future.

• Do you think it would help your child(ren) if you sent it/them to 'Varsity? 100 per cent. said that after reading Chamber of Commerce advertisements in the daily papers they thought there were only three alternatives if the youth of today was to become the tycoon of tomorrow:

(1) Marry someone from Remuera.

the Junior (2) Join Chamber of Commerce.

(3) Join the new waterside warkers' union.

Page 4

CRACCUM

Friday April 27, 195

MOANING

POLITICS

BLOOD & OIL

Just over a month ago a bullet in the disposed of head Persia's Premier, General Razmara.

Two weeks later, Dr. Zangeneh, Minis-ter of Education in Razmara's Cabinet departed this world by the same route.

Official sources say that the two killings are not connected. How silly this statement is, may be seen when we peep into the reto the record of war, tyr-anny, corruption and in-trigue that has been trigue that has been Persia's history for the last half-century. It is full of such coincidences.

The record is, however, too long even to sum-marise here. For those interested in the machinations of the oil groups, it is all in the books.

What concerns us now that the situation is has taken a slightly different turn. The distinguishing factor is nationalism. For a long time now Persia has been subserv-ient to those countries whose representatives drill for her oil. Her religious and national move-ments were, in the earlier days of the oil fight, used as pawns and many ter-rible and bloody internal wars were the result. Now that Anglo-American oil control has been estab-lished, the emphasis has shifted to a distrust of these movements and a desire to become a desire to keep at least the nationalists as weak as

It might be worthwhile having a look at a pas-sage from the "New Statesman" concerning this matter this matter.

Successive Iranian Governments, e n j o y i n g Anglo-American support, have vied with each other in corruption and con-tempt for democratic lib-erties. They have done nothing to raise the peasant population out of hunger, disease and illiteracy. Absentee landlords take an exorbitant share of the crops. In the towns the workers are exploited and denied genuine union rights.... trade

"The secret police is ac-re. Any party which allenges the ruling tive. challenges the ruling group is suppressed, newsrs arbitrarily banned their editors sent to and jail under an extremely severe press law. At the same time as-sistance to these Governments is given by Ameri-can military and financial missions, and the gen-darmie has been reorgan-Youth and Students for a ised by U.S. officers . . .

"Anglo-American policy springs from the desire to make Iran a 'strong and reliable roof to the Middle Eastern defences,' and from the fear that most advocates of social and political reform might beand come pro-Soviet and would, if permitted any influence, open Iran to penetration by the USSR As in Asia, this conception of defence against Communism means backing repression, incompet-ence, corruption, and reaction . . . and thus alien-ating the awakening nationalist forces that want independence and social change and do not want Communism."

Recent events indicate that nationalism in Persia is stronger than the authorities would like. Such is the uneasiness in high quarters that even hitherto quiet conserva-tives have voiced their concerned opinion that further repressive governments of the stamp of Razmara's might well be the cause of popular revolt

Moreover, this uneasi-ness seems to have penetrated elsewhere.

Recent newspaper American talks have be-gun to discuss the situa-tion. ports state that Anglo-American talks have be-It is to be wondered if the result of these talks will be rigid enforcement of the old method. If so, we might event-ally find ourselves supually porting in war, a govern-ment based on principles which are odious to all of us.

I.U.S. Meet

Preparations are under way for a World Festival Peace of Youth and Students, according to advice received from the International Union of Students in Czechoslovakia. This will be held Berlin from August 5-19 of this year.

It is understood that four delegates from different organisations will probably represent New Zealand at the Festival, one of the delegates being from Victoria College. The bulletin which "Cruccum" received refer-red to the heavy cultural and educational pro-gramme that was being arranged. And it said as 80 nationalities were to be repre-sented, such a Festival would contribute much to-wards building friendship world peace.

What's On In A.U.C.

To make Revue a success there must be rehearsals so all actors, commedians. etc. should turn up at the set times. Here's the score:

- Mon.: Crowd scene; Maori Scene; colonists.
- Tues.: Jolly hostess scene; yokels; Charlie Chaplin Chaplin scene.
- Wed.:"The Critics" scene; the radio stations.

Fri.: Girl and boy scene; Christmas scene.

The Place: College Hall.

The Times: Major Rehearsals,

Saturday, 10 a.m. Other rehearsals, 8 p.m.

Tramping Club is holding its annual May camp at Hunua this year from Tues. 15 to Sun. 20.

The Fresher Speech Contest will be held Thurs., April 19.

The time is 8 p.m. and the place the Women's Common Room.

The W.E.A. is pre entilng Moliere's 'Tartuffe'' with a season of 4 performances.

.....The play will be staged at the S* Andrew's Hall, Lower Wed., Ap. 18, Thurs. 19, Fri. 20, and Sat. 21

THANKS

"Flash" Gordon wishes tc thank all those who helped him in any way with the billeting for Easter Tournament.

Shoe

Surprising how quickly shoes wear down these days. All because transport fares shoot up. Some city firms though, don't seem troubled. They still manage to run free transport services for shoppers. Seems then that increased fares could be shouldered by firms on the transport routes.

In 1949 for example, large large city store made £78,696 net profit—three times as much as in 1945. Why say then that they couldn't pay the additional

Dynamic Tiny Tot Keys Is "Ducky"

Female students utter those involuntary but nauseating little giggles when Profess|0|r Keys transposes 18th century French into good everyday speech.

Professor Keys' lectures on French literature are not only interesting, edu-cating and entertaining but highly dramatic.

Evidence of Professor Keys' stage experience is seen in his intonation, expression and even acting on the rostrum—which give a true representation of the plays read.

Professor Keys has the abaility to put all of Shakespeare's" Seven Ages of Man" into the space of one lecture hour. He can change his voice from an He can Errol Flynn swashbuck-ling tone to a girlish professor's lectures are so

SONG BOOK TOPS

"This is really good" "about time something like this turned up"______ these and other similar forms of eulogy greeted the ar-rival of this latest import into our College.

And rightly so. For this little booklet will fill the gap in even your singing repertoire—both for the bath and the bar (law students excepted). Even French I students will be interested—if only to diswords the cover the words of "Alouette" do make sense. The selection is choice and well varied, but not all the ditties could be recommended for reading aloud in Sunday School.

Loud may be the wails set up by students who cannot discover the true facts of the "Ball of Glen-muir." Even louder will be the gleeful gurgles of the gleeful gurgles of others on learning of Polly Perkins' sad fate and Mary's latest plight.

So far praise has been so far praise has been confined to the enlighten-ed few who have seen copies. Despair not ye ditty-seekers — more will be available soon. As yet only one with

As yet only one criticism has been raised against the color of the flag in song No. 52, though the juxtaposition of this latter and "God Defend latter and "God Defend N.Z." will doubtless cause much tongue-wagging and eye-brow raising.

OVER MUNNING ... art it one thing and pictorial journalism is a very different kettle of fish. It is the chief function of the Royal Academy to obscure such genuine distinctions."

"... it might have been better, things considered, if Sir Althings fred had stuck to doing posters for chocolates, theatre shows, and Christmas crackers . . . "

"... the panorama of his work, as seen in the copious illustrations that interlard the text, is one of unrelieved and an dullness and an obsessive garity." vul

Subject of these forthright opinions is Sir Alfred Munnings, R.A. Contained in a book review in a recent issue of the Listener they are by "A.R.D.F.", who may pos-sibly be indentified with Fine Arts lecturer Rex Fairburn.

In the hope that to some people at least such things still sacred Craccum are conducted a lightning poll conducted a fighting point among students and staff. While he agreed in gen-eral with ARDF'S criti-cism of Munnings, Mr A. V. C. Fisher, director of Elam, considered that too many people thought themselves qualified to express opinions on art. In-tellectuals, particularly literary intellectuals, had made a football of art.

"Where a picture had entertained the intellects and emotions of a large number of people for a long time, then it was en-titled to be regarded with respect."

Criticism of art is jective said Jim Gale. Fairburn's criticism of Munnings is right for Fairburn for all time. In my view Fairburn is cor-rect to look for something more than entertainment value in art. Art should bear a stimulating relation to the development of society!

Gerald Utting, journal-ist, said he took little in-terest in modern poetry.

Munnings work is not great art because the emphasis is on the pictorial element said Literary Club chairman, Gainor Jackson.

Joan Reilley, art stud-ent, thought A.R.D.F. himselif should paint a pictures to see if few they would be suitable for use on chocolate boxes.

Karl Orirensky said "the article further illustrated the inevitability of the rise of the proletariat (concluded on page 5) ship this What a at the mc tralia of a

It is al

The

least-see

Friday A

that quite local ter selected. uates it w 'Varsity out its ke five pla days. Even a tour, he Auckland another solve. T last ye none of 1 charac t match-wi of the N Perhaps ward who ly "fiery" man—yet light. This yea heav the seasons. wards are stone mar age weigh around 14 newcomer best be c late-comer have stop the last co G. McDe be at th scrum. H rather lea son. Altho frail buil often he in the l have the him. Howeve no doubti this depar added we wards he support out specia Bryce J bimself a well as a and is and The oth are Penn in the loop who has a lock pos however, sentee fo games ow jury. B

D. Brys

Locking "Pommy" turned 01 ally ove years. the initiorward.

Rot

ling sonrano.

Small wonder that the popular.

27, 195

Friday April 27, 1951

CRACCUM

Varsity Rugby Team Tops This Year

The Auckland University senior Rugby team-on paper at least-seems to have every prospect of carrying off the Championship this year.

What appears to be its greatest "bugbear" at the moment, is the proposed trip to Australia of a New Zealand University side.

It is almost certain I that quite a few of the local team will be selected. If this eventuates it will mean that 'Varsity will be without its key players for five playing Saturdays.

Even apart from the tour, however, the Auckland team has another problem to solve. The forwards last year displayed none of the dash that characterised the match-winning efforts of the Marist pack. Perhaps the only for-ward who was consistent-ly "fiery" was "Snow" Pen-man-yet he was too light.

This year's pack will be the heaviest for many seasons. Three of the forwards are over the 16 stone mark and the aver-age weight is somewhere around 14 stone. D. Bryson is the only newcomer although he can best be described as "a late-comer" since injuries have stopped him playing the last couple of seasons. G. McDonald will again G. McDonald will again be at the back of the scrum. He experienced a rather lean time last sea-son. Although tall, he is of frail build and all too often he gains possession in the lineouts only to have the ball taken off jury.

However there can no doubting his ability in this department. With the added weight in the for-wards he may gain the support that every line-out specialist requires.

уеагв.

Bryce Rope has proved bimself a good leader as well as a capable flanker and is again captain. The other side-row men are Penman—really good in the loose—and G. White who has also played in the lock position. Penman, however, may be an absentee for the first few games owing to a head in-

BIG MAN

He seems to lack

the initiative of a class

inment should g rela nent of journal-ittle inoetry. is not the em victorial ry Club ackson. t stud-F. hima few f they for use said er illuspility of pletariat ge 5)

[•] Varsity again has the services of Kurtovich, one of the best hookers in Auckland at present. He could perhaps improve on his all-round play by attaining a better state of physical fitness.

Reserve hooker is Pat Houlahan, who has played mostly for the 'Varsity juniors.

Kurtovich will receive solid support from front solid support from front rankers O. Scott, T. An-tonievich and A. Robin-son. The latter last play-ed for 'Varsity in 1949 but ed for 'Varsity in 1949 but was away on a family tour last year. GOOD BACKS The backs, if a little over-rated, have undoubt-ed talent. Should the for-wards win a fair share of the ball they will probably be able to decide the issue.

All the backs with the exception of "Butch" Halligan have represented Auckland and on performances last year Barter might well have to give way his hold on the half-back position. Coach Bergham must be placed in a somewhat em-barrassing position as far as the five-eighths are as the fi concerned.

Des Cooney, a little too prone to injury, D. Wes-ton and All Black John Tanner are again avail-Tahner are again avail-able. The problem may be further complicated with the arrival of Caughey and B. Halliwell, from England. The former is well

The former is well known to Rugby fans by his outstanding performhis outstanding perform-ances two seasons ago. Halliwell, on the other hand, has played only a few games in senior ranks, for Ponsonby. There is a possibility that most of the backs will play on alternate Sat-urdays and centre Gordon urdays and centre Gordon Gilmour will probably have his turn on the side line, while John Tanner fills the centre position.

'Varsity will be consid-erably strengthened by the re-appearance of "glamour-boy" Barrie Sweet who last year rep-resented Hawke's Bay Locking with Bryson is another big man-"Pommy" Wall who has turned out only occasion-ally over the last few resented Hawke's Bay and almost gained selec-tion for the All Blacks through his good play in the trial matches. Hard - running Dave Grace will also be seen on the wing this year and Murray Tanner at full back completes the back-line.

SOCCER WIN

Last Saturday 'Varsity defeated a strong Metro team 4-1. Warwick Elley scored twice from the left wing. Goals were also scored by Jim Gale and Graham Thornley. The team has made a very promising beginning. The first eleven is play-ing in the Second A divi-sion the winner of which will be promoted to the first grade next second first grade next season. Varsity intends to be the team promoted.

British United defeated the second team in a spir-ited game by five goals. MORE PLAYERS are urgently required in order to field the three teams entered.

Officers for 1951: President: Mr. L. Milner. Vice-Presidents: Dr. Toy,

Mr. W. R. H. Martin. Club Captain: J. A. Gale. Secretary: O. Sternbach. Treasurer:

B. Rambisheswar. Publicity: G. Williams.

Wanted to Buy

Two thousand old issues of Craccum. Sel. D. Rubbish, fish and chip monger Auckland.

SITUATIONS VACANT WE require 15 stage hands for our coming revue in Auckland.

Applicants must be able to dance a three-hour, non-stop mambo and dance one-step bop continuously partnered by 15 Jamaic-ans (soon to be imported in refrigeration space in ship lying in Harbour for two months already). Applicants must be live ly, attractive, and have at least 13-hour stamina. No males or females will be considered.

Apply Missouri Revue Coy.,

Auckland.

TENDERS are called for construction of Auckland Harbour Bridge. Construction expected to take 30 to 40 years. Apply Crac-cum. Lowest tender not necessarily accepted (but will be.)

540 L Fiz-ed Instructor On The Cards

In 1946 the Government made a grant of £600 p.a. to each of the University Colleges for the appointment of Physical Welfare Directors.

Other colleges were prompt in making use of their opportunity.

Although Auckland has done nothing yet, Canterbury appointed a man in 1946. Last year his classes began with 500 enrolments

Exclusive of those using the facilities by means of sports clubs 1700 submitted to a voluntary mass chest X-ray.

It is obvious that much could be done to cured three blues improve the general fitness of Auckland students, and to provide coaching of a good standard to particular clubs.

College Principal Maid-ment gave assurances that the Council was concerned about the matter. Suit-able men were, he said, available for appoint-

But there does not appear to be a satisfactory room or hall to use as a gym. Attempts to obtain the use of the Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A., the Drill Hall, the Masonic Hall and St. Andrews have proved of no avail.

Is there any alternative accommodation. It was suggested that the table-tennis room off the Men's Common Room might serve the purpose. Mr. Maidment awaits a report from the Executive on this point.

And the Exec? Well, they've referred the mat-ter to the Physical Wel-fare Department. Their report will decide whether the table- tennis room will be made use of. Positive action in the interests of students is something to be hoped for.

Basketball is a popular game with both men and women students. The pace is exhilarating and all players are given an equal share of the ball (and fists!)

(and fists:) The Basketball Club this year developed high standard of play. There is every indication that the 'Varsity team has good chances of winning the Auckland Basketball Competition.

In the Easter Tournament Otago secured the shield, but Auckland gain-ed second place and se-Dunckley) this month.

Frances Spence, Shirley McAveney and Teresa

Reisdon. The Club this year is in-deed lucky in possessing such a keen coach - Dot Wilshire, an ex-Executive member.

Anybody who has any knowledge of the game at all is encouraged to come along. There are three teams and as many play-ers as possible are wanted.

Practices are starting immediately and all who are interested are advised to get in touch with Val. Mossman, the Club Cap-tain, or Lilian Gracey, the Secretary. Freshers are particularly welcome. Everybody who has play-ed at school is urged to participate in this, the best of all possible sports at the University (ob-viously the biassed at the University (ob-viously the biassed opinion of a female re-porter.—Sp. Ed.) Remember also — there is a chance for you to get away to Dunedin for the Winter Tournament.

PING PONG

The following teams have been registered in the Auckland Association inter-club competitions:-

Inter-club competitions.— Men: Senior Reserve, B Grade (two teams); C Grade (one team). Women: B Grade (one team); C Grade (two teams). teams).

Matches start on May 7 at the Show grounds at Epsom.

A handicap tournament is being played at the showgrounds during the week commencing April 30. The dates for each grade will be posted on the table tennis notice board (on the cloisters noticeboard outside Room 22)

There are still several There are still several vacancies for several players on the teams already registered, espec-ially the girls' teams. A small levy of only 6/-for the whole year has been made to cover register teation and affiliation tration and affiliation fees. This money must be in the grasping hands of the secretary (D. C.

Page 5

NG

NG

thing urnal ferent is the of the to obenuine

t have things ir Alto dochocoshows, mas ama of in the is that is one illness vul-forth Alfred ook reisue of are by iy pos-1 with r Rer O some things

raccum

ng poll

1 staff.

in gencriti-

Mr A stor of hat too

)ught

I to ex-art. In-cularly

ls. had art. re had

tellects

1 large was end with is sub-

Gale.

im or ht for

ime. In is cornething

for a

Page 6

More Film Reviews "Walk Softly, Stranger"

The only similarity between this film and "The Third Man" lies in the same leading caste.

It falls far short of "The Third Man" because no amount of technical brilliance and honest acting can disguise the ordinariness of the story of an ex-gambler turned good, gambler turned sup whose past catches up with him.

It has a crime back ground and, on the whole, matons.

Towards the end, however, where the emphasis falls on straight action, it descends to mere "thrillevel. ler'

These last sequences lack the overtones of feeling that were present in the finale cf "The Third Man". They tend to decline into the hard-bailed cangetar formula boiled gangster formula that few Hollywood crime films can escape from.

"Blossoms in the Dust"

This is a re-issue. It aims at rending the female heart.

It presents a succession of emotional scenes featuring various aspects of mother love.

3

well-conceived | POLITICS . . . It is a and technically well-executed film and pos-sesses a story with a realistic basis. Unfortunately this story is overlaid with a glucous veil of Hollywood emotionalism.

The result is a little indecisive and sticky. Greer Garson plays a woman who, losing her own child, gravitates into the position of providing orphans and foundlings With homes. Walter Pidgeon, intro-duced in the first half to supply a light-comedy ro-supply a light-comedy ro-mantic element, is conven-iently removed half-way through to aid Greer in her purpose, with his large bequest.

She has quite a struggle against prejudice and inpustice.

And we go home satis-fied that Romance com-bined with Right have once again emerged technicolourfully triumphant.

"God of the Atom"

The colour film "God of the Atom" was presented in the Zoology Lab. at four lunch-hour screenings last week by the Evangelical Union. Its sub-title "Sermons in Science" succinctly stated its object—to link science with religion and present a way out of modern problems through Christianity. It demonstrates effectively that the alternative to this approach is wholesale destruction. Scientific data was handled in a manner that was satisfying to both sciencestudent and layman.

PARTY'S PANIC ?

At the present time the National Party is carrying out most of its policy with the vigour it promised.

The Communists are in a minority.

The Liberals are almost non-existent.

But what of the Labor Party?

News has been received that our own Labor Club has disaffiliated from the party.

The reasons given for this move suggest that the party is drifting away from the public.

Since it first came into office in 1935 on a high wave of public support, the Labor Party has fared badly.

It lost much ground at each election and it was noticeable that its loss of popularity was in direct proportion to its decline in vigour.

Now that it is out on its ear, what does it in-tend to do?

It is a question of vital importance to the party's future as a political force. Its average supporter is not at all clear where he stands. If then, the party is to retain his support, it must obviously, without more ado, put his doubts at rest by giving an indication of its future plans. —M. Martinac.

Moaning Over Munning

(concluded from p.ge 4) from the subjugation by the bourgeosie." Art is what people keep on looking at. We must divest ourselves of pre-judices and keep on looking at pictures, said Pro-fessor Anschutz. He fessor thought thought the assumption would be that if any painting had stood for a great dael of time then there would be something to it. He had seen only one original by Sir Alfred and felt incompentent to press an opinion on his work.

MOANS & GROANS NERTS

Sir, I am not insensible of the ego-inflation conse-quent upon the publication of some of my ponderous remarks in the Staff-Student debate. But: (1) it is a pity that your reporter appears to suffer from specific bockwardness in spel-I am not insensible of suffer from specific backwardness in spelling; concluding com-(2) my ment on Mr Smith's essay in alliteration was "verbal facwas "... verbal fac-ility without felicity," which differs some-what in emphasis from the reported version; (3)it is not made clear that the tiresome concatenation of 'c's was the product of the student team leader and not myself; I point this out for the benefit of the major ity of students who de August.

This year Students will have the abysmal depths of my prolixity I could not descend to such tedium. W. B. Olphert

On browsing hastily (can one browse hastily?) last week through you rag of many colours (t (to name a few: anaemia blue, corn yellow, muckegg green, red, eyewash pink, and blank and tripe) I came suddenly face to face with the following heading: Rum Scheme Indigo Bop.

Sir.

Thinking perhaps a Mus-dravian column had been initiated (I have several penfriends in Musdravia) I investigated further.

As the import of the terrible words which fol-lowed impinged them-selves successively on my ego, superego and id, and the immensity of the inthe immensity of the in-sult sank slowly in, I de-cided that the best thing to do would be for you to name your time and place. (Double edged krises at twenty paint-pots). After all, two negative architectural students make (if nothing else) a positive reaction. R. Ward Applications are invited for the position of Editor to the annual Journal of the University College— Kiwi. Applications close with the Chairman of the Publications Committee or April 30.

It is hoped that the pub-lication will be issued in

FROZEN FOODS MAKE DELIGHTFUL DISHES

Zeropak and Birdseye Frozen Foods make Meals for Modern People. Regardless of the season you can buy the foods that you like.

In our big range we have frozen asparagus tips, sliced beans, peas, boysenberries, strawberries, tree tomatoes, crayleg meat, scallops, creamed sweet corn and lots of other things that will make your mouth water.

BOOKING privileges for Revue Get your seats while the best are available

PRIORITY

Bookings may be made at the new Association Office. near Mens Common Room April 23 - 24 from 9 a.m. to 5.30 p.m.

Remember "REVUE" dates MAY 7th to 11th

Friday April 27, 1951

tive, Wom Ski Club Committe Club, Dr

WATSONG PRINTING HOUSE LTD.

not know me; my friends will be well aware that even in know 5-No. 6

HAT SAID

mpted e deregiste brought a n from sti

y-two stude: ed intimidat that the prote take some beir strong npted intim extracts: it is in the lent body th such tacti resolution . feel the

and in fac ne measure ther attemp uch an atter dy (especial litical body) dent life wi should be we suggest ing to during commend the executiv e stand aga his propagan the atten intimidation ed union is body . . ." ly, the Labo le individu: ur Club n d in the lets this wa on the part and was not The writ F. R. SI

w nothing student wro ion of tho by to justify